

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Status of Claims

Claims 1-9 are now pending. No claims stand allowed.

Claim 1 has been amended to correct a minor informality. No "new matter" has been added by the amendment.

Claim Objections

Claim 1 stands objected to for a minor informality. Claim 1 has been amended to insert --the-- before "vicinity" in accordance with the Examiner's suggestion. With this amendment, it is respectfully requested the objection to the claim be withdrawn.

The 35 U.S.C. §102 Rejection

Claims 1-3, 6, 4-6, 9, and 7 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) as being allegedly anticipated by Cascone et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 6,552,490 B1). This rejection is respectfully traversed.

35 U.S.C. §102(e) (pre-AIPA) provides that:

the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371 (c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent. (emphasis provided).

The Applicants respectfully submit that cited reference Cascone is a continuation-in-part application which was filed on September 21, 2000 after the present application was filed on August 28, 2000, and based on (i) the present application, (ii) U.S. Patent Application No. 09/626,315, filed on July 31, 2000, now U.S. Patent No. 6,456,009, and

(iii) U.S. Patent Application No. 09/574,712, filed on May 18, 2000, now U.S. Patent No.
6,211,657.

Submitted herewith for the Examiner's information is a copy of U.S. Patent No.
6,456,009 ('009 patent) and U.S. Patent No. 6,211,657 ('657 patent). By comparing the description of these two patents and that of the present application, it is clear that the description in Cascone ('490 patent) regarding the gun-only magnet and the vacuum electron device using the gun-only magnet is based on the present application, not the '009 patent or the '657 patent. Thus, with respect to the description on the gun-only magnet and the vacuum electron device using the same, the present application is the parent application of Cascone, and thus the present application should not be rejected based on an after-filed continuation application thereof.

Furthermore, submitted herewith as separate papers are 37 CFR §1.132 affidavits of the inventors, Edward L. Wright and Richard J. Dobbs, of the present application, stating that the description in the '490 patent (Cascone) regarding the gun-only magnet and the vacuum electron device using the gun-only magnet is based on their own invention which was first described in the present application.

Accordingly, Cascone is not an application before the present invention.
Therefore, it is respectfully requested that the rejection of claims based on Coscone be withdrawn. In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully asserted that the claims are now in condition for allowance.

In addition, please note that the applicants are filing a petition to correct inventorship for the '490 patent under 37 C.F.R. §1.324, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §256. A copy of the petition will be sent for the Examiner's information.

Judicially-Created Double Patenting

Claims 1-9 have been rejected pursuant to the judicially-created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 12-14 of the '490 patent (Cascone).

A Terminal Disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR §1.321(c) and signed by an attorney of record, David B. Ritchie (Reg. No. 31,562) is submitted herewith to obviate this rejection. Accordingly, is respectfully requested that the obviousness-type double patenting rejection be withdrawn.

Common Ownership

The examiner requires the assignee, under 37 CFR §1.78 (c) and 35 U.S.C §132, to show that allegedly conflicting inventions of the present application and the '490 patent were commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made, or name the prior inventor of the allegedly conflicting subject matter.

Submitted herewith is a statement from the assignee, Communications and Power Industries, Inc., stating that the claimed inventions were commonly owned or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person at the time the later invention was made. Also submitted herewith is a copy of the recorded assignments of the present application (executed on October 20, 2000 and November 20, 2000) and the '490 patent (executed on December 14, 2000 and December 17, 2000). Please note that Communications and Power industries, Inc. changed its name to Communications and Power industries, SATCOM division, but they are the same entity.

Request for Allowance

It is believed that this Amendment places the above-identified patent application into condition for allowance. Early favorable consideration of this Amendment is earnestly solicited.

If, in the opinion of the Examiner, an interview would expedite the prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney at the number indicated below.

Respectfully submitted,
THELEN REID & PRIEST, LLP
